driver early this morning. The officers say Tyler's car was going thirty-five miles an hour. Bail in the sum of $250 was furnished.

Poundmaster Named.

Thomas Freeman was appointed poundmaster this morning by Chief of Police J. F. Warren to succeed Henry Greig, who had held that position for nineteen years before his resignation last week. Freeman worked in the pound with Greig before the latter resigned as a result of a disagreement with James Lenair and Fletcher Oliver of the same department. Lenair and Oliver were suspended following the trouble and were ordered back to duty this morning.
