institutional emphases

student success  undergraduate research  high impact educational practices  signature learning experiences library emphases

continuous improvement  user-centered approach  information literate learners  discovery & access  the intellectual commons values & characteristics know how we fit into the overall Berry experience be open to change

communicate library value seize learning opportunities have a transparent decision-making process be able to articulate improvement communicate effectively promote diversity

collaborate

foster positive experiences create a desirable physical environment user-centered space

encourage engagement

be an academic showcase build community

promote library services be accountable

advance our unique collections encourage participation be a learning laboratory